

I believe that the code requirement should be kept..it enables contacts in noisy conditions,uses less power and band width,is a rewarding mode to learn and operate,plus reduces language barriers.